Roma, 4^o March 2019 – Also a woman in the Formula Regional 2019, a driver with nothing to envy to the male colleagues, the Swiss Sharon Scolari, with family team ScoRace, is ready for the challenge in the entire first Formula Regional European Championship certified by FIA.

Born in Locarno and grown in Sant'Antonino, Sharon comes close to motorsport at a young age following her father in his races, and finally sitting on a go kart at the age of 11.

"I am very happy to announce that in this 2019 season I will compete in the new Formula Regional European Championship certified by FIA. It is a new challenge for me, that will see me driving the new Tatuus F3 T-318 with number 7.

We have chosen this championship as it an official FIA certified competition, which also gives maximum possible points among the F3 championships, for the Super Licence necessary for F1.

Moreover, the 8 weekends of the calendar see 3 races each, positioning Formula Regional at the top as championship with maximum number, 24, of races competed in a single season."
