

Monza race 2: Hauger once more unbeatable

Hauger again unrivalled wins followed by an always excellent Belov and Aron, who well resists the attacks of Alatalo

Monza, 19 October 2019 - Bad start from pole for Jonny Edgar (Jenzer Motorsport) who is overtaken by the 2019 champion Dennis Hauger (Van Amersfoort Racing). Even Paul Aron (Prema Powerteam) attacks Edgar who initially resists and then loses several positions. A spin of Marinangeli also involves Gnos with the activation of the yellow flag regime.

Subsequently Edgar in great crisis is overtaken by Alecco, who however makes a mistake at the Lesmo and is rescued by Edgar and Aron. So, the ranking sees Hauger, Mikhael Belov (Bhai Tech Racing), Gianluca Petecof (Prema Powerteam) and Aron.

Aron, winner of the Rookie Trophy, overtakes Petecof at the Roggia, and Alatalo does the same, but then it is Aron who has problems and the trio is again compact. The battle will continue until the end with a resounding overtaking and counter-overtaking of Alatalo on Aron, the latter able to finally conquer the third absolute place behind Hauger and Belov.

And, in fact, during the race Hauger extends a lot on the second, Belov, and to follow a thrilling battle between Alatalo and Aron, slightly in crisis.
