

Mugello race 2: Hauger takes the deserved victory

Innocent on the incident of race 1, Hauger with decision takes his victory in race 2

Mugello, 5 October 2019 - Dennis Hauger (Van Amersfoort Racing) in race 2 takes the victory he already deserved in race 1, and does so with a burning start and an unbeatable pace for all opponents, including Roman Stanek (US Racing), the only one still keeping pace with the Norwegian.

However, the battles behind them are wonderful, with an amazing Ido Cohen (Van Amersfoort Racing) who first passes Gianluca Petecof (Prema Powerteam) and then Joshua Duerksen (BWT Muecke Motorsport), taking third place. But the Israeli pilot's battle does not end here, because at 8' to the end of the race Roy Lucas Allecco (Van Amersfoort Racing) goes off track and safety car is in. At the restart Cohen loses his position on an astute Aron, and is thus forced to fight to take it back with another fantastic overtaking.

Hauger wins, followed by Stanek and, third, Cohen. Among the Rookies first is Stanek, second Aron and third Duerksen.
