

Kim Hwarang, the first Korean driver in the Italian F4! The 16-year-old, from karting to Italian F4, with the Italian team BVM Racing

April 1st, 2022 – 2022 Italian F.4 Championship certified by FIA will be the starting ground for the sixteen-year-old Korean Kim Hwarang. After his career in karting, Formula 4 is the natural next step for his growth on track, as imagined by the FIA, in the ideal path that follows young talents towards Formula 1.

The Italian F.4 Championship by ACI Sport promoted by WSK Promotion was his choice, for several years the series has been the most participated and competitive among the equivalents. He already took several tests on single-seaters, in Italian and European circuits, and showed a good speed that certainly marks his name among the competitors to take into consideration during the Championship starting on the weekend of 8 May.

The colors represented will be those of the Italian team BVM Racing, after the winter tests at Misano the deal has been made official with the signature.
